This includes reviewing the company's most prominent initiatives to promote health, the environment and sustainable growth.

It should be noted that this report has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Corporate Governance Regulations issued by the Capital Market Authority and the Companies Law issued by the Ministry of Commerce and Investment, taking into account the adoption of a high degree of transparency and disclosure in a way that enhances the loyalty of all stakeholders in the company and helps shareholders and investors make their investment decisions.

We begin this report with the Speech of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, then the Speech of the CEO, and then we start listing the information and data of the report according to the list of contents.

Introduction

Gentlemen/ Shareholder of Tabuk Cement Company

On behalf of my fellow members of the Tabuk Cement Board of Directors, I present to you the annual report of the company for the fiscal year ending on December 31, 2020.

During the year 2020 AD, the world faced many challenges in a direct reflection of the challenges and risks caused by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. In the Kingdom, we have received great attention and care from our wise government led by the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques and the Crown Prince, His Royal Highness Prince Mohammed bin Salman. Contribute to supporting the local economy and companies overcoming these challenges.

We worked in Tabuk Cement Company as one team according to the highest standards of governance and best practices, with the future in mind and based on a set of values and our keenness to harness all capabilities to support and develop human capital, believing that they are the basis of this company and in the capabilities and qualifications of our sons and daughters. This helped the company achieve many of the accomplishments and successes discussed in this report.

In conclusion, on behalf of my colleagues, members of the Board of Directors, I would like to express my deep thanks and great gratitude to our rational government, our valued shareholders and all our partners for their continuous support and confidence in Tabuk Cement Company, as well as thanks to my colleagues and colleagues from the company's employees for their effective role in implementing our strategy and for creating a constructive and distinguished work culture that has borne fruit. For positive results for this year, we also aspire to discover new and promising opportunities while continuing to achieve benefits and protect the rights of shareholders, stakeholders and society.

CEO

Gentlemen/ Shareholder of Tabuk Cement Company

It is my pleasure, at the beginning of my speech, to welcome you to a new meeting in which we review the most prominent achievements of Tabuk Cement Company during the year 2020

The past year was a turning point at the level of our administrative and operational operations, as we demonstrated our responsible commitment to the importance of this sector and its pivotal role in increasing income towards the development of the cement sector, believing in its role in enhancing market efficiency, building and developing society, as one of the main pillars in building the national economy In terms of labor, productive capacity and invested money

In light of the turmoil facing the local and global markets, represented by a decrease in demand due to the arrival of the Corona virus. Tabuk Cement Company developed a well-thought-out strategy adopted by the Board of Directors and those in charge of the company who have the professional ability to seize opportunities with rewarding investment returns, as it has achieved good results during the year 2020 and has continuously maintained its market share.

In addition to the above, initiatives have been rolled out during the year 2020 with the aim of consolidating the principle of comprehensive development as a general culture within the company, including the development of procedures related to human resources, information technology, quality systems, and occupational and environmental safety. The restructuring and organization of the company is one of the initiatives that we have been keen to implement during the past year, in line with developments in the market and developments in the economic arena. The administrative structure of the company is a realistic embodiment of the strategy, in the framework of strengthening the foundations of the company dynamically and smoothly, and allowing the way to continue innovation and growth, which reflects our ability to adapt and survive, and contribute to raising the level of our operational efficiency

In our endeavor to advance our local community, our attention has remained focused on sustainable social and environmental projects in the interest of future generations, in line with our strategy in the field of corporate social responsibility.

I am confident that the future will be better and that the year 2021 will bring with it many achievements and successes. Here I would like to take this opportunity and extend my sincere thanks and appreciation to the Chairman and members of the Board of Directors of the company for their wise vision and their full support. I am also pleased to extend my thanks and gratitude to our shareholders, partners and clients, and to everyone who contributed, worked and exerted efforts to achieve the vision of Tabuk Cement. You, with your support and trust, are the main driver for the success of this company. As we entered into a new decade full of opportunities and capabilities, I hope my colleagues will continue to support the Tabuk Cement Company and the dedication to work and make Maximum efforts to achieve the goals of our strategy.

Risk Management

- The concept of risk management
- Why is the company interested in the risk management process?
- The nature of the risks

Risks and how to deal with them

First: The concept of risk management in TABUK Cement

Risk management is the process of measuring and evaluating potential risks and developing management strategies to ensure preventive treatment of those risks and facilitate work on early detection of actual problems with the aim of minimizing their negative effects on the company.

Second: Why is the company interested in the risk management process?

Tightening control and controlling the risks surrounding the company's activities and business.

Determine the specific treatment for each type of risk.

Work to limit losses and accept them to a minimum.

Providing appropriate confidence to all stakeholders of the company, especially shareholders, creditors, clients and suppliers, in order to protect the ability to generate profits despite any accidental losses that may lead to diminished profits or non-realization.

Third: The most important risks facing the company

The risks described below do not include all the risks that the company may face. Rather, additional risks may exist, but they are either unknown to the company during the current time, or the company may consider them not essential and do not hinder its work, and these risks can be summarized as follows:

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the difficulty that an enterprise will encounter in raising funds to meet commitments associated with financial instruments. The following are the contractual maturities of the financial liabilities at the end of the financial year. Amounts are shown in total and not

The company manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate reserves, banking facilities and loans, and by continuously monitoring future cash flows, as well as by matching the maturities of cash assets and liabilities.

Commission rate risk

Commission risk arises from potential changes and fluctuations in interest rates that affect future profit or fair values of financial instruments. The company is subject to commission risk on its commission-paying liabilities represented in loan balances. The company seeks to reduce interest rate risk by monitoring potential fluctuations in interest rates and hedging these risks when needed.

Foreign currency risk

The company's exposure to foreign currency risks is mainly limited to transactions in euros and the US dollar, and the fluctuation in the exchange rates of currencies against the euro and the US dollar is monitored on an ongoing basis. Against the US dollar and the euro that does not represent significant currency risk, the quantitative data related to the company's exposure to foreign currency risk arises from currencies, which are as follows:

Credit risk

Credit risk is represented in the inability of other parties to pay their contractual obligations towards the company, which may result in a financial loss to the company. Concentrations of potential credit risks mainly include trade debtors, cash and the like. Cash and the like are deposited with banks with a high credit rating; The Company's management believes that there is no concentration of credit risk.

The company manages credit risk related to the amounts due from trade receivables by monitoring method in accordance with established policies and procedures. The company limits credit risk related to trade receivables by setting credit limits for each client and monitoring outstanding trade receivables on an ongoing basis.

The impact of COVID-19

The outbreak of the new Corona virus (Covid-19) in early 2020 in most countries has led to widespread disruption of business, and the consequent negative impact on economic activities. The company is constantly monitoring the impact on it, and it cooperates side by side. With local regulatory bodies to manage the potential business disruption due to the COVID-19 outbreak

In view of the outbreak of the Covid-19 epidemic, the company has verified that any adjustments and changes in judgments, estimates and risk management have to be taken into account and disclosed in the financial statements.

In sum, the most prominent risks facing the company's activity can be identified as follows:

1. Difficulty opening markets for export and competition in foreign markets according to current conditions and requirements.
2. The slow movement of projects led to an increase in the supply of cement, intense competition and a noticeable decrease in selling prices.
3. Competition to enter cement companies in the same region.
4. Unavailability of fuel to supply the second production line, as the company is still making efforts to end the problem with the concerned authorities.

First: An introduction to the concept of corporate governance at TABUK Cement Company

Governance aims to set rules and regulatory standards to ensure adherence to the best governance practices that ensure the protection of the rights of shareholders and stakeholders, according to which TABUK Cement Company is committed to adopting the highest standards of governance, believing that a sound governance system is the important tool in developing the wealth of shareholders in the long term, and this system is consistent with The company's commitment to quality in all of its operations, activities and products. The rules, policies and procedures mentioned in this system are binding on all members of the board of directors, the executive management, managers and employees of the company, and it is not permissible to amend this system except by a decision of the company's board of directors.

The governance system of TABUK Cement Company is defined as being built on important foundations, namely:

- 1- The optimal system through which the company is directed and controlled, and clarifies the governance structure and the distribution of powers and responsibilities among the various participants in the company, such as the board of directors, managers, shareholders and other stakeholders.
- 2- It clarifies the rules and procedures related to decision-making in the affairs of the company, and provide a structure that clarifies the company's objectives and the means to achieve them and monitor performance, and the Board of Directors is responsible for the governance system of TABUK Cement Company.

The Governance System of TABUK Cement Company has been prepared in a manner that does not contradict the provisions of the Corporate Governance Regulations issued by the Board of the Capital Market Authority, and in accordance with internationally recognized standards in corporate governance, and it must be considered as the basis of the corporate governance system and not as a substitute for sound management policies for all administrative levels. In the company, and it must be taken into account within:

The Capital Market Law issued by Royal Decree No. M / 30 dated 06/02/1424 AH and its implementing regulations.

The Companies Law issued by Royal Decree No. M / 3, dated 01/28/1437 AH, and its amendments, and the decisions and circulars issued by the Ministry of Commerce and Investment.

Articles of Association of TABUK Cement Company.

The Board of Directors or (the Association) may amend this system from time to time when needed, in accordance with the instructions and requirements of the Capital Market Authority, business needs and the requirements of sound management, and in a manner that does not conflict with the provisions of the Corporate Governance Regulations issued by the Board of the Capital Market Authority.

Second: The Board of Directors (composition, functions and classification of its members)

The General Assembly appoints seven members of the Board of Directors by regular voting and remote voting from among the applicants for membership of the Board, in accordance with the controls and procedures specified by the Ministry of Commerce and Investment, the Financial Market Authority, and the Company's Articles of Association for a period not exceeding three years, and they may be re-elected knowing that the governance system TABUK Cement Company requires that the majority of the board members be non-executives.

Definition of Board of Directors:

The board of directors is the supreme administrative entity in the company that represents it and protects its interests, and the board has several tasks

The main ones are:

1. Leading and controlling the business and activities of the company and continuous monitoring of its performance.
2. Exercising this responsibility by adopting and implementing its policies and objectives and supporting its departments in carrying out their duties according to specific standards.
3. Directing and controlling the executive management, and setting appropriate controls for its work. This includes defining a clear vision and strategy for the company and determining the basis for delegating powers to manage and the policies and determinants allowed to work within its boundaries.

The responsibility of the Board of Directors is represented in several points, including:

1. Establishing the strategic objectives of the company, providing the leadership that works to implement them, supervising the company's management, and preparing reports for the shareholders about their management of the company.
2. The work of the Board of Directors is subject to the laws and regulations, the company's articles of association, and the control of the shareholders in the general assembly of the company.

Among the responsibilities of the Board of Directors is to approve the strategic directions and main objectives of the company and oversee their implementation, including:

1. Developing, reviewing and directing the overall company strategy, main business plans, and risk management policy.
2. Determining the optimal capital structure for the company, its financial strategies and objectives, and approving annual budgets.
3. To oversee the company's major capital expenditures, asset ownership and disposition.
4. Set performance targets and monitor implementation and overall performance in the company.
5. Periodic review and approval of the organizational and functional structures in the company.
6. Establishing systems and controls for internal control and general supervision thereof, including:
7. Setting a written policy that regulates conflict of interest and addressing potential conflict situations for both members of the board of directors, executive management and shareholders, including preventing misuse of company assets and facilities, and preventing misbehavior resulting from dealings with related persons.
8. Ensuring the integrity of the financial and accounting systems, including the systems related to the preparation of financial reports.
9. Ensuring the implementation of control systems for risk management, by defining the general perception of the risks that the company may face and presenting them with transparency.
10. Annual review of the effectiveness of the company's internal control procedures.
11. There are also some responsibilities assigned to the Board of Directors in line with the relevant laws and regulations, including:
12. Drafting a corporate governance system and rules in a way that does not conflict with the provisions and texts of applicable laws and regulations, monitoring the effectiveness of these rules in general, and amending them when necessary.
13. Establishing policies, standards and procedures for Board membership and putting them into effect after approval by the General Assembly.
14. Establishing a written policy that organizes the relationship with the related parties in order to protect the rights of all parties
15. Laying down rules of professional conduct for the company's managers and employees in line with sound professional and ethical standards
16. Establishing policies and procedures that ensure that the company respects the laws and regulations and the company's commitment to disclose essential information to shareholders, creditors and other parties.
17. Preparing the financial statements and the annual report on the company's activities and its financial position for the elapsed fiscal year, including the proposed method for paying dividends.
18. Recommending to the general assembly of shareholders to appoint and dismiss auditors and determine their fees.

F - Actions taken by the Board of Directors to inform its members - especially non-executives - of shareholders' proposals and comments about the company and its performance.

The Company's Basic Law and the Company's Corporate Governance Regulations guarantee to shareholders all rights related to the share. Accordingly, the company has taken a number of measures to inform members of the Board of Directors, especially non-executives, of shareholders' proposals regarding the company and its performance as follows:

- 1- The company has designated a department for the company's investor relations that responds to the inquiries of the shareholders and receives their comments or complaints through the communication channels available through the company's website, phone or e-mail.
- 2 - These inquiries - if any - are examined and classified and the essential ones are submitted to the Board of Directors during its periodic meetings.
- 3 - The company is always keen to urge all members of its board of directors to attend the general assemblies to answer shareholders' questions and to obey their views and observations on the company and its performance. The work regulations of the Board Committees bind the heads of the committees of the Board of Directors or whoever they designate from their members to attend the General Assemblies to answer shareholders' inquiries.
- 4- The shareholders' questions and inquiries are recorded in the minutes of the general assembly meetings and kept at the company's headquarters, and any shareholder can obey them upon request.

G. The means adopted by the Board of Directors in evaluating its performance and the performance of its committees and members, and the external body that carried out the evaluation and its relationship with the company, if any.

Based on the keenness of the Board of Directors at TABUK Cement Company to achieve all the articles of corporate governance issued by the Capital Market Authority, including the guidance materials and the most prominent practices in force globally, especially with regard to the role of the Chairman of the Board in listening to the views of non-executive Board members regarding their observations and visions about the performance The company has evaluated its executive management on a regular basis, and for that, TABUK Cement Company has conducted a periodic evaluation of the performance of its board of directors and its committees since 2018, with the aim of identifying strengths and weaknesses and proposing treatment in proportion to the company's interest, and in continuation of this approach, the company will contract with an external party Independent (and not a related party with the company) and specialized in the field of evaluating the performance of boards of directors and effective leadership to carry out an evaluation of the performance of the board and committees for the year 2021 AD, noting that the evaluation process is carried out under the supervision of the Nominations and Remuneration Committee, and the evaluation mechanisms and axes were presented to the Board of Directors, which included Conducting the completion of a comprehensive questionnaire that includes all the axes that cover the tasks and responsibilities of the Council and the committees, as well as the effectiveness of the meetings of these bodies, including the evaluation of the extent of The effectiveness of participation and discussions during these meetings in order to reach deliberate decisions that enhance the company's performance and achieve its objectives.

From this standpoint and in line with Article 39 of the Corporate Governance Regulations, the necessary mechanisms have been put in place for the members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management to obtain training programs and courses on an ongoing basis, with the aim of developing their skills and knowledge in the fields related to the company's activities, as follows:
